SECTION IV - APPLICATION MATERIALS (Checklist)

The applicant must complete and submit the following items along with this application.

(1) Short Answer:

The Muslim Congress Scholarship Fund was designed with the aim of providing support to the needy students of various communities via scholarship stipends. We would like to emphasize the word needy here due to the fact that this Fund is designed to provide immediate financial support to those qualified students who can provide proof of dire need. Please detail in no longer than 1 page typed, the reasons for which you feel you qualify for this need based scholarship.

(2) Please submit an essay (typed, double-spaced) with a maximum word limit of 500 words on one of the following topics/questions:

Essay Option #1:

As Muslim in North America, we have a responsibility to spread the message of the Ahlul Bayt to both non-Muslims and Muslims alike. How can one promote and educate students on campus from different beliefs and background on the teachings of Ahlul Bayt and the Shia school of thought?

Essay Option #2:

What are some of the problems facing the youth of today in North America, and what are some practical solutions for these problems in the light of the teachings of Ahlul Bayt. How can the youth get involved in local communities and make greater strides in following the path of Ahlul Bayt?

(3) A - Transcript: An official transcript must be submitted with this application if already enrolled in a college/university OR
B – Letter of Acceptance: The official letter must be submitted by the college/university you plan to attend.
